The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

Law School
Dalhousie University

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

L'exemplaire filmé fut reproduit grâce à la générosité de:

Law School
Dalhousie University

Les images suivantes ont été reproduites avec le plus grand soin, compte tenu de la condition et de la netteté de l'exemplaire filmé, et en conformité avec les conditions du contrat de filmage.

Les exemplaires originaux dont la couverture en papier est imprimée sont filmés en commençant par le premier plat et en terminant soit par la dernière page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration, soit par le second plat, selon le cas. Tous les autres exemplaires originaux sont filmés en commençant par la première page qui comporte une empreinte d'impression ou d'illustration et en terminant par la dernière page qui comporte une telle empreinte.

Un des symboles suivants apparaîtra sur la dernière image de chaque microfiche, selon le cas: le symbole \rightarrow signifie "A SUIVRE", le symbole ∇ signifie "FIN".

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

PREFACE.

The first issue of this work (now not only out of date, but also out of print) having proved of much service to the profession, I feel justified in issuing a second edition.

Publication has been delayed from month to month, in the belief that a new lower scale tariff was to be issued; and, inasmuch as it is still in contemplation, I have thought it well to make no reference to it, rather than fill in charges which may soon be superseded.

I have to express my obligations to Mr. Hamilton Cassels, who has not only revised the manuscript, but has supervised the work in its passage through the press.

ADMINISTRATION,

G. O. Chy., Nos. 643 and 644, provides as follows :

In all suits hereafter instituted for administration or partition, or administration and partition, unless otherwise ordered by the Court or a Judge, instead of the costs being allowed according to the tariff now in force, each person properly represented by a Solicitor, and entitled to costs out of the estate—other than creditors not parties to the suit—shall be entitled to actual disbursements in the suit, not including Counsel fees, and there shall be allowed for the other costs of the suit payable out of the estate, a commission on the amount realized, or on the value of the property partitioned in the suit, which commission shall be apportioned amongst the persons entitled to costs, as the Judge or Master thinks proper. Such commission shall be as follows:

On sums not exceeding $500	20 per cent.
For every additional 100 up to $ 1,500	5 “ “
For every additional 100 up to 4,000	3 “ “
For every additional 1,000 up to 10,000	2½ “ “
For every additional 1,000	1 “ “

And such remuneration shall be in lieu of all fees, whether between party and party,” “as between solicitor and client,” or “between solicitor and client.” G. O. Chy. 643.

The commission payable under this order is divisible only between those who are strictly parties to the suit, properly represented by a solicitor, and entitled to costs out of the estate. Persons not originally made parties to the suit, but served with a copy of the decree under Ord. 60, are not thereby made parties to the suit, but are merely enabled to attend the proceedings and are bound thereby as though they were actually parties, English v. English, 12 Gr. 441. In a suit by a residuary legatee, the plaintiff sufficient presents the other residuary legatees, and they are not entitled as of course costs out of the estate occasioned by their appearing by another solicitor the Master's office, Gorham v. Gorham, 17 Gr. 386. Creditors who are either plaintiffs nor defendants are also excluded from participating in the commission, and their costs will be disposed of as formerly. The commission to cover both the Solicitor's fees and the fees of the counsel. It is, of course, not intended to cover costs ordered to be paid by one party to another. It is intended to cover only costs payable out of the estate. The commission should be divided into equal fractional parts, and the parts allotted to the solicitors in proportion to the amount of work done by, and the responsibility imposed upon them. Objections to the commission allotted, may be made on a motion for distribution, without previous notice of appeal being given, Dodge v. Clapp, 8 P. R. 388.

Where the principal part of the costs of a suit is ordered to be paid personally by one or more of the parties, and the costs of only a small proportion of the work done, are chargeable against the estate, it does not appear that in such a case the full amount of the commission here provided would be payable, and the power reserved to the Judge to make other order would probably be exercised. Cases might arise where from special circumstances the commission here provided would be clearly inadequate, and in such cases it would be possible that the power to make other order as to the costs would be exercised.

The costs should be divided in proportion to the amount of the work done and responsibility incurred by each Solicitor. The question is open for discussion when the report comes before a Judge in Chambers for review; and in some cases the question as to the proper distribution to be made has, by the direction of the Judge, been submitted to the Master in Ordinary.

Whether between solicitor and solicitor, or between solicitor and party, or between party and party, the Judge may, in his discretion, disallow all, or any, of the costs of a suit or suits, which in his opinion has or have been unnecessarily produced." G. O. Chy. 644.

When two or more suits are instituted for administration, or partition, or sale, the Judge may, in his discretion, disallow all, or any, of the costs of a suit or suits, which in his opinion has or have been unnecessarily produced." G. O. Chy. 644.

By Ord. 305, the Master is directed not to allow a party on taxation any costs which do not appear to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of Justice or for the defending his rights, or which appear to have been incurred through over-caution, negligence or mistake, or merely at the expense of the party; and under Ord. 315, unnecessary costs occasioned by defendants severing in their defence are to be disallowed. Under the present order the whole costs of a suit may be disallowed if it has been com-

(b) "Either party may call upon the other party to admit any document, saving all just exceptions; and in case of refusal or neglect to admit after such notice, the costs of proving any such document shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the action may be, unless at the hearing or trial the Court certify that the refusal to admit was reasonable; and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed, unless such notice is given, except where the omission to give the notice is, in the opinion of the taxing officer, saving of expense." O. J. Act, R. 241. This is also a copy of Chancery Con. Gen. O. 156, and of Com. Law Pro. Act, R. S. O., c. 50, s. 171.

The section of the Com. Law Pro. Act has been held to apply to all documents the party intends to adduce in evidence, and is not confined to such only as are in his custody or control. Butter v. Chapman, 8 M. & W. 388; Conger v. McKechnie, 1 Cham. R. 220; including foreign judgments: Smith v. Bird, 3 Dowl. P. C. 641; and documents the validity of which is directly in issue: Spencer v. Barrough, 9 M. & W. 425.

Among the "just exceptions" are, the admissibility of the document as evidence: Phillips v. Harris, Car. & M. 492; and its legal effect: Hills v. The London Gas Light Co., 1 F. & C. 346. An admission so far recognizes the general character and accuracy of the document that no objection can afterwards be made to its reception on the ground of interlineation: Ferman v. Steggall, 14 Q. B. 202; and see Doe dem. Wright v. Smith, 8 A. & E. 255. The admission of a copy does not entitle the plaintiff to put in the copy without first accounting for the original: Sharpe v. Lamb, 11 A. & E. 805; and see Goldie v. Shuttleworth, 1 Camp. 70; it does not obviate the necessity of producing the document admitted at the trial: Vane v. Whittington, 2 Dowl. N. S. 757; Lesslie v. Leahy, 5 Q. B. O. S. 482. The admission when made is conclusive: Langley v. Earl of Oxford, 1 M. & W. 608; and when made for one trial continues to be so for any future trial: Ellou v. Larkins, 5 C. & P. 385; Barraclough v. Greenhouse, 1 L. R. 2 Q. B. 612; Wilson v. Baird, 19 U. C. C. P. 98. A party called on to admit must be given a reasonable time allowed him: Tynn v. Billingsley, 3 Dowl. P. C. 810; Cary v. Cumberland, 1 P. R. 140.

"Cost of proving any document shall be paid, &c." But this does not apply if the witness who is called to prove the document, give evidence on any other fact than the genuineness of the document: Stracey v. Blake, 7 C. & P. 404.

The party refusing must pay the costs, though the verdict be set aside, and though before the second trial the admission be made: Lewis v. Howell, 6 A. & E. 769. The party giving notice is entitled to the costs only, if the document be proved: Doe dem. Peters v. Peters, C. & K. 279; Day v. Vinson, 9 L. T. N. S. 723.

s or Plans.

If maps or plans were used at the trial the necessity for them must be shewn in the affidavit of increase, or no allowance will be made for them; the sum paid for them must also be set forth; and that they were prepared or procured with a view to the trial of the cause. The Taxing Officer is authorized in such case to make a reasonable allowance for maps and plans. R. G. No. 165 of H. T. 1856: County Court Rules No. 151. The amalgamation of the Courts by the Judicature Act may have had the effect of superseding this rule so far as it requires the production of an affidavit. In Smith v. Day, L. R. 16 Ch. D. 726, the Court refused to direct the Taxing Officer to adopt the practice in the Queen's Bench Division of requiring the Solicitor to make an affidavit of increase since evidence could be obtained without such affidavit of all matters necessary for his information. The Court, however, refused to lay down any rule that such affidavit should in no case be required.

PART III.

MISCELLANEOUS.

1. ARBITRATIONS.

Costs of arbitrators are regulated by R. S. O. cap. 64.

Interpretation.

Sec. 1. In the construction of this Act, "arbitrator" shall include all arbitrators, every umpire and every referee in the nature of an arbitrator; and

"Award" shall include every umpirage and every certificate in the nature of an award.

Non-professional Arbitrators.

Sec. 2. No arbitrator, who is not by profession and calling a barrister, attorney, engineer, architect, or provincial land surveyor, shall be entitled to demand or take for his attendance and services as an arbitrator, any greater fees than are hereinafter set down in schedule A. to this Act.

Professional Arbitrators.

Sec. 3. No arbitrator, who is by profession and calling a barrister, attorney, engineer, architect, or provincial land surveyor, shall be entitled to demand or take for his attendance and services as such arbitrator, any greater fees than are hereinafter set down in schedule B. to this Act.

Witnesses.

Sec. 4. No greater fee shall be taxed or allowed to any persons called as witnesses before any arbitrator or umpire than would be taxed and allowed to the same persons in an ordinary suit before a Court having jurisdiction over the subject matter of reference.

Adjournments.

Sec. 5. Wherever, at any meeting of arbitrators, of which due notice has been given to the respective parties, no proceedings are taken in consequence of the absence of either of the parties, or because a postponement is made by the arbitrators at the request of either party to some future day, the arbitrators shall make up an account of the costs, charges and disbursements of such meeting, including the proper charges for their own attendance and that of any witnesses, and of the counsel or attorney of the party present, or not desiring such postponement, and shall charge the amount thereof, or of the disbursements, against the party making default in attending, or at whose request the postponement is made (unless the arbitrators, under the special circumstances of the case, think that it would be unjust to charge such disbursements, or costs, charges and disbursements against him), and such last named party shall be bound to pay the same to the other party, whatever may be the event of the award and reference, and the arbitrators shall, in the award, make any direction or adjudication necessary for that purpose, and if such sum payable by the party in whose favour the award is otherwise made, it may be set off against, and deducted from, any amount awarded in favour of that party.

Taxation.

Secs. 6, 7, 8 and 9. Either party to an arbitration shall be entitled to have the costs thereof taxed, including the fees to the arbitrators, by the Master of any of the Superior Courts at Toronto, having jurisdiction of the cause; or in cases where the arbitrators determine the amount of the costs, or where there is no cause in Court, by the Master to be named in a Judge's order, which may be granted for that purpose on a proper application on affidavit setting forth the facts.

7. The Master shall in no case tax higher fees than are set down in this Act, but, upon reasonable grounds established before him upon affidavit, he may in taxation reduce the maximum mentioned in the schedules, but not below the minimum, having always regard to the length of the arbitration, and to the value of the matter in dispute, and the difficulty of the questions to be decided; but he shall not tax more than one Counsel fee to either party for any meeting of the arbitrators.

8. The Master may tax and allow a reasonable sum for the preparation and drawing up of the award.

9. A revision of taxation may at any time be granted upon application to the Court or a Judge, reasonable ground being shown. *

Agreements as to Fees.

Sec. 10.—The parties who refer any matter in difference between them to arbitration, whether any cause, suit or action is pending between them or

INVESTIGATION OF ACCIDENTS BY FIRE.

R. S. O. c. 196.

Sec. 7. Where any such inquiry has been held by the Coroner in respect of fire in any City, Town, or Incorporated Village, in conformity with this Act, the Coroner holding the same shall be entitled therefor to the sum of ten dollars, and should the said enquiry extend beyond one day, then to ten dollars per diem for each of two days thereafter and no more; and in the case of an investigation concerning a fire occurring in any place not within a City, Town, or Incorporated Village, the allowance to the Coroner shall be five dollars for the first day, and should the enquiry extend beyond one day, then four dollars for each of two days thereafter and no more.

Sec. 8. In all cases the party requiring any such investigation shall alone be responsible for the expenses of, and attending, such investigation.

Sec. 9. No Municipality shall be liable for any such expense, unless the investigation be required by an instrument under the hands and seals of the Mayor or other head officer of the Municipality, and of at least two other members of the Council thereof; and such requisition shall not be given to charge any Municipal Corporation unless there are strong special and public reasons for granting the same.

Sec. 10. No expenses of, or for, an adjournment of any such inquest shall be chargeable against, or payable by, the party or Municipal authorities calling for, or requesting, the investigation to be held, unless it is clearly shewn by the Coroner and certified under his hand, why, and for what purpose, an adjournment took place or became necessary in his opinion.

EXECUTING CIVIL PROCESS.

The same fees are to be taxed and allowed to Coroners for services rendered by them in the execution and return of process in civil suits as would be allowed to a Sheriff for the same services. R. G. No. 164 of H. T. 1856 and Co. Ct. Rules No. 150.

7. COUNTY ATTORNEYS.

R. S. O. c. 78, ss. 13-16.

Sec. 13. In every case of misdemeanor tried at the Court of General Sessions, in which costs are or may be ordered to be paid by a defendant, the County Crown Attorney shall be entitled to fees as Attorney and Counsel for services rendered in such case, to be taxed by the Court according to the scale of allowance in the County Courts as nearly as the nature of such services will allow; such fees, in case of conviction, to form part of the costs payable by a defendant.

Sec. 14. In all cases of felony tried as aforesaid, and in all cases of misdemeanor in which no costs have been ordered to be paid, or if ordered to be paid, cannot be made of the defendant, the County Crown Attorney shall be entitled to receive for the services rendered by him in each such case the sum of $5, to be paid upon certificate of the Judge presiding at the Court of General Sessions, and to form a portion of the expenses of the Administration of Criminal Justice in Ontario.

Sec. 15. For services in the County Judge's Criminal Court, the County Crown Attorney shall be entitled to the same fees as for like services at the Court of General Sessions of the Peace.

Sec. 16. Every County Crown Attorney shall be allowed a percentage of $4 on every $100 of all public moneys coming into his hands.

R. S. O. c. 87, s. 17.

For and to cover the costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the certificate, or the inquiry whether a certificate should be granted, the County Crown Attorney shall be entitled to receive from the corporation of the County in which the Court is held, the sum of $1 in respect of every prosecution or trial on which a witness is examined, which sum shall be over and above his other costs and charges.

AFFECTING SHERIFFS.

R. S. O. c. 16 ss. 31-34.

Sec. 31. Any Sheriff who wilfully makes any false return upon any writ or a warrant of execution directed to him and placed in his hands for execution, unless by consent of both parties to the same, shall be liable to forfeit his office.

Sec. 32. Every Deputy Sheriff, Bailiff, or other Sheriff's Officer or Clerk, entrusted with the custody of any writ or process, or of any book, paper or document belonging to the said Sheriff or his office, shall, upon demand upon him by such Sheriff, restore and return such writ, process, book, paper, or document to the custody of the said Sheriff, and in case of any neglect or refusal to return or restore the same as aforesaid, the party so neglecting or refusing may be required by an order of any Court of Record in Ontario, or of any Judge of such Court, to return and restore such writ, process, book, paper or document to such Sheriff, and may be further proceeded against by attachment, as in other cases of contumacy to orders or rules of Court.

Sec. 33. If any Deputy Sheriff, Bailiff or Sheriff's Officer has in his possession, custody or control, any writ of summons, fiery facias, or other writ, or any bench warrant or process whatever, and, upon demand made by the Sheriff from whom the same was received, or his successor in office, or by any other party entitled to the possession of same, neglects or refuses to deliver up the same, such Sheriff, or his successor in office, or the party entitled to the possession of the same, may proceed by summons and order before any Judge having jurisdiction in the Court out of which such writ or process issued, to compel the production thereof: which order may be enforced in the same manner as like orders for the return of writs against Sheriffs, and with or without costs, or be discharged with costs against the party applying, in the discretion of the Judge aforesaid.

Sec. 34. Every Sheriff shall, each day, holidays excepted, keep his office open from ten o'clock in the forenoon until four in the afternoon, and during all that time he, his deputy or some clerk competent to do business for him, shall be present to transact the business of the office.

Sec. 39. Before an action is commenced by a Sheriff for the recovery of a bill of fees chargeable against an Attorney or Solicitor, and after the expiration of one month from the service of the bill, the Sheriff may serve the Attorney or Solicitor with a notice of an application to the Court of Chancery, returnable not earlier than eight days from the day of service, or for a rule or summons of either of the Courts of Queen's Bench or Common Pleas, or of any Judge of a County Court, returnable not earlier than eight days from the day of service, for payment of the amount of the bill; and the amounts claimed shall be stated in the notice, rule or summons.

Sec. 40. On the return of the notice, rule or summons, the Court or Judge may, without a reference, direct the payment to the Sheriff of the amount of his demand, or of any less amount, either without costs or with costs to be fixed by an order or to be taxed; or the Court or a Judge may order the bill and the demand thereon to be taxed by the proper officer of any of the said Courts, and may direct that the officer shall tax to the party entitled thereto his costs of the reference, and may also direct that the Sheriff and the Attorney or Solicitor shall respectively pay what may be found due to the other upon the conclusion of the reference and taxation; and the Court or Judge making the reference shall restrain the bringing of any suit pending the reference; and in case the order of reference does not make provision in this behalf, the officer named in the order of reference may, in his discretion, having regard to the matters in dispute between the parties and occasioning the costs, tax the costs of the order and reference, or any portion thereof, in favor of either party, or may disallow any part thereof.

Sec. 41. The party entitled to payment may, at the expiration of eight days from the date of the order or of the certificate of the taxing officer, as the case may be, sue out a writ or writs of execution for the amount ordered or certified to be payable to him.

R. S. O. c. 50, ss. 23-24.

Sec. 23. Upon the delivery of a writ of summons, or a writ of ejection, at the office of any Sheriff, to be served by him, he, his Deputy or Clerk, shall endorse thereon the time when it was so delivered; and in case the writ is not fully and completely served within ten days after such delivery, the plaintiff, his attorney or agent shall be entitled to receive back the same; and the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff or Clerk, shall endorse thereon the time of the delivery; and the costs of the mileage and service of the writ by any literate person afterward shall, in case the person to be served was at any time during such ten days within the County, be allowed in the taxation of costs, as if the service had been by the Sheriff or his officer.

Sec. 24. If the Sheriff, being applied to, neglects or refuses to return the writ, after the expiration of the ten days, the plaintiff may issue a duplicate or concurrent writ on the præcipe already filed, and the costs of the first or other writ not returned may be charged against and recovered from the Sheriff by the plaintiff or his attorney.

TAXING SHERIFF'S COSTS.

R. S. O. c. 66 ss. 48-52.

Sec. 48. Upon the settlement of an execution, either in whole or in part, by payment, levy or otherwise, the Sheriff or officer claiming any fees, poundage, incidental expenses or remuneration, which have not been taxed, shall, upon being required by either plaintiff or defendant, or the Attorney of either party, and on payment or tender of the expenses of such taxation, and the further sum of twenty-five cents for the copy of his bill in detail (which he shall be bound to render) have his fees, poundage, incidental expenses or remuneration, as the case may be, taxed by the Clerk or the Deputy Clerk of the Crown of the County wherein such Sheriff keeps his office.

Sec. 49. No Sheriff shall collect any fees, costs, poundage or incidental expenses, after having been required to have the same taxed, without taxation; and upon tender of the amount taxed no fees, costs, poundage or incidental expenses in respect of proceedings subsequently taken shall be allowed to any Sheriff.

Sec. 50. It shall be the duty of every taxing officer above referred to, to tax the bills of costs presented to him for taxation, as herein required, upon payment or tender of his fees, and to give, when requested, a certificate of such taxation and the amount thereof.

Sec. 51. It shall be the duty of every taxing officer aforesaid, upon proof of notice of the time and place of such taxation having been served upon the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff, or other officer charged with the execution of the writ to examine the bills presented to him for taxation as herein required, whether such taxation is opposed or not, and to be satisfied that the items charged in such bill are correct and legal, and to strike out all charges for services which, in his opinion, were not necessary to be performed.

Sec. 52. Either party dissatisfied with the taxation may appeal to the Court or to a Judge of the Court in which the proceedings are taken, for a revision of such taxation, as in ordinary cases.

RULES TO RETURN WRITS, AND DUTY OF SHERIFFS AND CORONERS THEREON.

R. S. O. c. 66, ss. 57-71.

Sec. 57. Every Deputy Clerk of the Crown and Pleas, and in County Courts the Clerk, may sign and issue rules on any Sheriff to return writs and process issued out of the office of such Deputy Clerk or County Court Clerk, and directed to such Sheriff; and each Sheriff shall, in case of his being served with any such rule, return such writs to the office from which the same issued.

Sec. 58. In case a writ delivered to a Sheriff for service or execution has remained in his hands fifteen days, and in case he has not been delayed from returning the same by an order in writing from the party from whom he received the writ, his attorney or agent, and in case he is afterwards ruled to return such writ, he shall not be entitled to any fees thereon, unless within four days after being so ruled he returns or encloses the writ by post to such party, his attorney or agent.

Sec. 59. In case the party who delivered any writ or process to any Sheriff to be executed, by himself or by his attorney, or by the agent of such attorney, requires, by a demand in writing, the Sheriff to return such writ either to the party or to his attorney or attorney's agent, or to the Court from which the process issued, and whether such requisition is made before or after the return day of such writ or process, or before or after the service or other execution thereof, the Sheriff shall within eight days, inclusive of the day of the service of the requisition, return such writ or process, according to the terms of the requisition, to the party or to the attorney, or to the agent of the attorney, or to the Court; and in case the Sheriff wilfully refuses or neglects to do so, he shall be liable to be ruled to return such writ or process, and to be further proceeded against as in other cases of contumacy to orders or rules of Court.

Sec. 60. In all cases where the party to the writ or process who did not deliver the same to the Sheriff to be executed is entitled, according to the practice of the Court, to call for a return of the writ or process, he may proceed in like manner to procure such return, as is above provided in the case of parties who have delivered the writ or process to the Sheriff for execution.

Sec. 61. In every case in which a Sheriff neglects or refuses to return any writ or process when so called upon, he shall be bound to pay the costs of any rule or order taken out to compel such return, and all other costs consequent thereon, and also the costs of the previous requisition to make the return.

Sec. 62. In case at any time after the proper day for the performance of any other duty or matter relating to the office of Sheriff, application is made for a rule, and a rule is granted on him by any Court, for the performance of the duty or matter, he shall, unless the Court or a Judge otherwise orders, pay to the party making the application or obtaining the rule, all taxable costs therein.

Sec. 63. In case it appears to the Court or a Judge that the application for a rule is frivolous or vexatious, the Court or Judge may, on discharging the application, specially order that no costs shall be paid by such Sheriff, or may specially order that costs shall be paid to the Sheriff by the party making the application.

Sec. 64. In no case in which a personal service on the Sheriff of any rule or other proceeding has heretofore been required, shall such personal service be necessary, if it appears by affidavit that inquiry was made for the Sheriff, and that he could not conveniently be found to make such personal service upon, but full and sufficient service shall be deemed to have been made upon such Sheriff by serving the Deputy Sheriff of such Sheriff if such Deputy Sheriff can be conveniently found to make such service upon; and if such Deputy Sheriff cannot conveniently be found, then such service may be made upon the Sheriff's Clerk, or upon any Bailiff of the Sheriff who may for the time being be present in, or have charge of, the Sheriff's office.

Sec. 65. The forty-eighth, forty-ninth, fiftieth, fifty-first, fifty-second, fifty-seventh, fifty-eighth, fifty-ninth, sixtieth, sixty-first, sixty-second, and sixty-third sections of this Act shall extend and apply to Coroners and Elisors employed in the service or executing of the process of any of the Superior Courts or of the County Courts.

Sec. 66. In case a writ is issued out of any Court of Record directed to a Sheriff or Coroner, and is delivered to him for execution, and in case such Sheriff or Coroner is ordered to return the same by any rule or order of the Court out of which the writ issued, and does not make such return within the time specified in the order, any Judge having jurisdiction in the matter may grant to the plaintiff or defendant in the writ (as the case may be) a summons upon the Sheriff or Coroner to shew cause why a writ of attachment should not issue against him; and the same or any other Judge, having such jurisdiction, may at the return of the summons discharge the same, or order a writ of attachment to issue against the Sheriff or Coroner, or limit a further period after which such writ of attachment shall issue unless a return be made in the meantime, or otherwise order as to such Judge seems proper under the circumstances.

Sec. 67. In case such writ is not returned at the expiration of any further time limited by the order of the Judge, as mentioned in the last preceding section, and in case the service of such order and the failure of the Sheriff or Coroner to return the writ is proved, the Court in Term time, or any Judge having jurisdiction as aforesaid in Vacation, may order a writ of attachment to issue forthwith against the Sheriff or Coroner.

Sec. 68. Upon the return of cepi corpus to any such attachment in Vacation, any Judge having jurisdiction as aforesaid, may direct the issue of a writ of habeas corpus, and thereupon may exercise the same powers and discretion in committing the Sheriff or Coroner to close custody, or in admitting him to bail, and in all other respects as are possessed by the said Courts respectively in Term time.

Sec. 69. All writs of attachment and habeas corpus issued against any Sheriff or Coroner may be returnable on a day certain in Vacation to be fixed by order of the Judge or Court ordering the same; and such return day shall not be more than thirty days from the issuing of the writ; and when the writ is returnable in Vacation it shall, when issued out of the Superior Courts, be made returnable before the presiding Judge in Chambers, and when issued out of any County Court, before the Judge thereof.

Sec. 70. Any Sheriff or Coroner who does not return any writ issued out of any of the said Courts within three months after a writ of attachment for not returning the same has been executed against him, shall forfeit his office; and if he continues after the expiration of such period to exercise the duties of his office without having been duly reappointed to the same, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of $400 to any person who sues therefor in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record having competent jurisdiction; but no such suit shall be brought after the expiration of twelve months from the time such forfeiture was incurred.

Sec. 71. The five next preceding sections of this Act shall not be construed to interfere with or take away any remedy which existed before the passing thereof.

SHERIFF'S COSTS.

R. S. O. c. 68 s. 17.

The costs of the Sheriff for seizing and taking charge of property, credits and effects under a writ of attachment, including the sums paid to any persons for assisting in taking an inventory, and for appraising (which shall be paid for at the rate of one dollar for each day actually required for and occupied in making such inventory or appraisal), shall be paid in the first instance by the plaintiff, and may, after having been taxed, be recovered by the Sheriff by action in any Court having jurisdiction to the amount, and such costs shall be taxed to the party who pays the same as part of the disbursements in the suit against the absconding debtor, and be so recovered from him.

The Surrogate Courts Act, C. S. U. C. ch. 16, sec. 17, enacts that, unless otherwise provided, the practice of the Surrogate Court, shall, so far as the circumstances of the case will permit, be according to the practice in Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England. Held, that the word "practice" did not include costs, so as to introduce the tariff of the English Court.

Held, also, that in the absence of a tariff of fees for contentious business in the Surrogate Court, the costs of the Solicitor must be taxed according to the tariff of the County Court, and according to the tariff of the Court of Chancery for any work done in that Court.
